

Yearbook/Photo Permission

Throughout the school year, there are many opportunities to highlight students and their work. Student work and successes are highlighted at Board of Education meetings, district newsletters, website, print publications, and social media. At the schools, principal newsletters, assemblies, teacher websites, and so much more showcase student learning and achievement.

Students are automatically opted in to opportunities such as those listed above. Any claim to compensation for the use of material, including photographs that may appear on the Royal Oak Schools website or in print/digital materials, is waived. Royal Oak Schools, its staff, its agents, its employees, and any other authorized parties are released from liability arising from your child's creation and/or use of the material created or furnished.

If you do not want your child to be included in such opportunities, you must check “NOT approved” and submit this form. If not approved, your child will be asked to step out of the photographs during school activities.
